

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Central Catholic High School receives Bronze Globe Award for Foreign Languages

Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, April 17, 2015 – Central Catholic High School recently received the Bronze Globe Award from the Pennsylvania State Modern Language Association (PSMLA). The PSMLA Exemplary Program (PEP) recognized Central Catholic in the 2015 PEP Awards Showcase, as an exemplary foreign language program.

In 2005, PSMLA began showcasing outstanding Pennsylvania high school foreign language programs with two-year awards.

PSMLA believes that all students deserve excellent foreign language programs. Thus, the ultimate goal of PEP is to provide a blueprint for all Pennsylvania high school world language programs.

Central Catholic is honored by this recognition and promises to continue to provide consummate foreign language instruction, as well as excellence in all areas of study.

PSMLA is the state professional organization for teachers of world languages. More information can be found at www.PSMLA.org.

Central Catholic High School, a college preparatory school for boys, is guided by the educational principles of St. John Baptist de La Salle. The school strives to provide a challenging, relevant, and diverse program of studies and extracurricular activities in an environment that fosters a life of faith and learning and develops leaders rooted in the Gospel values of integrity, respect, service, justice, and peace. The school is currently at capacity with 870 young men from all across southwestern Pennsylvania.

For more information, please contact:

Eric Starkowicz

Director of Marketing and Communications

Central Catholic High School

412.622.6173

estarkowicz@centralcatholichs.com

<http://www.centralcatholichs.com>